Our procedures

Any complaint verbal or written will be referred to our complaints manager at the earliest opportunity or to a member of the senior management if the complaints manager is unavailable. We will also:

- acknowledge the complaint in writing promptly where appropriate
- give details in our acknowledgement letter of the Financial Ombudsman Service
- make contact to seek clarification on any points where necessary
- fully investigate the complaint
- keep you informed of our progress
- discuss with you our findings and proposed response

You will receive contact from us advising on progress if we cannot respond immediately. We will let you have our final response as soon as possible and not later than eight weeks.

We will be the first contact, if you have any complaints. However, you can also refer your complaints to the Financial Ombudsman Service if:

- you have already received our final response. The complaint must be referred to the Financial Ombudsman Service no later than 6 months after the date on which we sent you the final response; or
- eight weeks have lapsed since we received your complaint. However, the complaint will not be considered by the Financial Ombudsman Service if it is referred more than 6 years after the event complained of or more than 3 years from the date on which you became aware that you had cause for complaint.

For Data Protection complaints, we can be the first contact. However, you can also refer your complaints to the Information Commissioners office

Adviser or Provider

Clients often express dissatisfaction to their adviser about the product provider. We will need to establish whether your complaint relates to the advice given, the adviser service or the service or performance of the product provider. If unclear, this must not delay investigation, and we will proceed with our own investigation. The complaints manager will review this matter and take the complaint to the provider if appropriate in consultation with you.

Investigation

The complaints manager will establish the nature and scope of your complaint having due regards to the Financial Conduct Authority's direction:

- Deal with complaints promptly and fairly
- Give complainants clear replies and, where appropriate, fair redress

Eligible Complainants

It is the firm's policy to treat all complainants the same, however, eligible complainants are legally defined and have additional rights in law that we must acknowledge and adhere to.

Eligible complainants are those who have a potential claim against a firm based whereby it believes he/she has suffered a financial loss due to poor advice or service that are:

- A consumer (a person acting outside their trade, business or profession)
- A micro enterprise (enterprise which employs fewer than 10 people and has a turnover or balance sheets that does not exceed EUR 2,000,000)
- A charity with an annual income of less than £6,500,000
- A trustee of a trust which has a net asset value of less than £5,000,000
- A buy to let consumer
- A small business (enterprise which has an annual turnover of less than £6.5 million and employs fewer than 50 people or has a balance sheet total of less than £5 million)
- A Guarantor

The Financial Conduct Authority complaints rules apply to complaints:

- made by, or on behalf of an eligible complainant;
- relating to regulated activity;
- involving an allegation that the complainant has suffered, or may suffer, financial loss, material distress or material inconvenience;
- not resolved by close of business on the day following receipt.

Data protection complaints only

If your complaint concerns how we collect, use, store, share, or process your personal data, it will be handled under the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025, UK GDPR, and the Data Protection Act 2018.

You can submit a complaint via email, phone, post, or any standard contact method. We will not refuse a complaint because it is submitted informally or through an alternative channel.

We may need to verify your identity or authority to act for someone else before proceeding.

We will investigate promptly, keep you informed, and provide an outcome without undue delay. Where your complaint includes a data access request, we will carry out a proportionate search and respond in line with applicable law. Legally privileged information may be withheld.

If unresolved, you may contact the Information Commissioner's Office.

Final response

This will set out clearly the firm's decision and the reasons for it. If any compensation is offered a clear method of calculation will be shown.

We must include details of the Financial Ombudsman Service in the final response if dealing with an eligible complainant and a regulated activity, we will:

- explain that the complainant must refer the matter to the ombudsman within six months of the date of this letter or the right to use this service is lost

Analysis

A root cause analysis will be undertaken by the firm in the case of any complaint and this will be recorded with the appropriate action having been taken.

Closing a complaint

Where the firm has sent a final response; or where you have indicated in writing acceptance of the firm's earlier response to confirm that you are satisfied with the findings of the investigations and any resolution

We will consider the complaint closed once we have issued to you our final response letter

Financial Ombudsman Service

If our final response is not acceptable to you then you may be able to refer this matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service – full details regarding the Financial Ombudsman Service will be sent to you as part of our response to your complaint, or at any other time if you ask us to do so.

We will co-operate fully with the Ombudsman in resolving any complaints made against us and agree to be bound by any awards made by the Ombudsman.

We undertake to implement promptly any award made in your favour by the Financial Ombudsman Service
